

Mendocino – September 20, 2008

Hosted by John Miller and Norma Reiman

We are going on an overnigher to Mendocino on September 20. We will have a catered dinner that evening at a house overlooking the Pacific. The view is spectacular.

We will caravan up there, stopping at a winery on the way for a picnic lunch. However, those members who sign-up for this event ( sign-up material and more details will be available in the June Jagazette) should consider making hotel reservations early since Mendocino is a popular destination during the summer and fall. We have arranged for reduced rates at the Mendocino Hotel as follows

European style rooms (share bath)	$106.25
Victorian Rooms with Private bath	$148 75
Garden Rooms	$233.75

There are more rooms at higher rates, which you may inquire about by calling the hotel directly. When calling the hotel, mention that you are with the Jaguar Club to get these reduced rates.

We have also arranged for reduced rates at the Hill House Inn, however the rates are not yet available. When calling the Mendocino Hotel, you can inquire about the rates at the Hill House since both hotels are run by the same people.

For those of you who have not stayed at the Mendocino Hotel, you will find it an elegant and restored old establishment. The telephone numbers to call are 800-548-0513 or 707-937-0511.
